FOREWORD

In order that some records of the family of Derrimon B. Lawrence and his wife, Elezan (nee Fish), be preserved, I have spent some time gathering data on the Lawrence and Fish families.

This family record is dedicated to Derrimon and Elezan Lawrence and their children namely, Clarica Lawrence Stewart, Mary Jane (Jennie) Lawrence McLallin, Elvira Lawrence Foss, Elezan C. Lawrence, Wallace M. Lawrence, Miles Weldon Lawrence, Samuel U. Lawrence and Frank M. Lawrence.

I wish to thank all who have helped me gather this data by furnishing personal family records or helped me in any way.

Ila L. Smith

DESCENDANTS AND ANCESTRY

D. B. LAWRENCE AND HIS WIFE, ELEZAN FISH.

Derrimon B. Lawrence was a descendant of, William Lawrence who, along with his brother John, emigrated to America in the ship, Planter, Nicholas Travis, master, in company with Governor Winthrop Jr., and landed at Plymouth Massachusetts, in 1635. Their younger brother, Thomas, came later.

They were the descendants of Robert Lawrence, of Lancashire, England. Also of John Lawrence, who died in 1538 and was buried in the Abbey of Ramsey. ("Lawrence Genealogy", by S. S. Lawrence 1898).

Robert Lawrence was born, probably, as early as A. D. 1150, and ancestor of the earliest families of the name in England. Attending his sovereign, Richard Coeur de Lion to the war of the Crusades in the Holy Land, he was so distinguished in the siege of Acre, that he was knighted, "Sir Robert of Ashton Hall," and obtained for his arms, "Argent, a cross raguly gules". - "Crest, The tail (or hindmost half) of a chub (fish) inverted and erect." He was first to plant the banner of the cross on the battlements at Acre. (From, "The Ancestral Lineage of John Lawrence, of Watertown, Mass.)

John and William Lawrence moved from Plymouth to Ipswich, Massachusetts, resided there for some time and then moved to Long Island.

John Lawrence in 1644 became one of the pantentees of Hempstead on that island under the Dutch governor Kieft. He and his brother William and sixteen others, obtained the patent of Flushing from the same governor, and the names of these two brothers also appear among those to whom the confirmatory patent was issued by Governor Richard Nicolls dated February 15, 1665.

During 1658 John Lawrence moved to New Amsterdam, where he settled permanently. Here he became active in civic activities. Governor Stuyvesant appointed him as one of the commissioners to treat with the General Court at Hartford in relation to the boundaries between New England and the Dutch provinces.

He was appointed in 1665 one of the first aldermen of New York on its incorporation under Colonel Richard Nicolls the first English governor after the conquest. He later served in other public offices.

John Lawrence was born 1618, St. Albans Hertfordshire, England. Died in New York City 1699. He and his wife, Susanna were parents of six children.

Thomas Lawrence was born 1635, St. Albans, Hertfordshire, England. Died July 1703, Newton, Long Island. Five sons survived him.

He together with his two brothers, obtained possession of a tract of land in Newton, Long Island, being mentioned as pantentees in the patent of that town, granted by Governor Dongan in 1689.

Thomas subsequently purchased the whole of Hell Gate Neck, then consisting of several valuable farms extending along the East River from Hell Gate cove to Bowery Bay.

(from, "Lawrence Genealogy", S. S. Lawrence. 1898.)

William Lawrence was the son of Thomas Lawrence and his wife Joan nee, Antrobus.

Thomas Lawrence was chief burger of St. Albans, Hertfordshire, England. He was born in 1588 and died in 1625.

His widow later married John Tuttle, (listed in passenger listed as Jo,) of Ireland. John Tuttle was a mercer, dealer in fabrics. John Tuttle and Joan were the parents of at least three children: Symon, Sara and Jo.

On April 2, 1635, the Tuttle family, which included William Lawrence, his brother John and sister Marie, sailed from the port of London, aboard the ship Planter bound for New England.

Note: A burger is a citizen of a borough (city). As Thomas Lawrence was chief burger, he may have held some office in St. Albans.

William Lawrence, the second brother, embarked with his brother John, in the ship Planter, in 1635, for America. He was in the 22nd. year of his age associated with him as one of the pantentees of Flushing, on Long Island. He lived here the remainder of his life. His correspondences, during the years 1642-3, with Gov. Stuyvesant, may be found among the archives at Albany, are ably written, evincing his energy and decision of character, and are evidently the production of a man of superior mind. He was the largest landed proprietor at Flushing. He lived upon Lawrence's or Tew's Neck (so called), of which he was the owner, and seemed to have been a gentleman of affluence, his sword, plate and personals alone valued at 4,430 pounds, sterling (see inventory of his estate on file in the Surrogate's office, City of New York, recorded 1680, Liber No. 22, page 24.) He was a magistrate under the Dutch government at Flushing, in 1655, and also held, under the English government, a military commission. He was also in the magistracy of North Riding of Yorkshire on Long Island.

The next year after William Lawrence's death, his widow, Elizabeth, married Sir Philip Carterett, Governor of New Jersey, to which province she moved and brought her seven young children. Being a woman of intelligence and unusual ability, she was entrusted with affairs of the colony during the time her husband was in Europe. In the title to some of the acts of that period, it is stated that they were, "passed under the Administration of Lady Elizabeth Carterett."

Before her marriage to Sir Philip, she reserved to herself, by an instrument in writing, the right of disposing of the lands conveyed to her by her first husband, William Lawrence, among such of her children as she should select; the one selected was her eldest son, Joseph, to whom she conveyed an extensive tract, situated upon Little Neck Bay, in the township of Flushing.

The meetings were held in the Lawson home until 1840, when a log meeting house was erected. After a few years the Society was disbanded. The Lawsons were living in Conneaut Twp. in 1860. They had many descendants.
- v. Luman. b. 20 August 1798 d. 13 March 1867 m. Mary Crockett. b.      d. 1845
Family records say he was married four times. He came to Crawford Co., in 1815. He was a farmer and owned a lot of land. He was the father of ten children. He was an old line Whig in politics.
- vi. Amelia, "Millie" b. 1800 N. Y. d. about 1853 m. John Sturgeon of Fairview, Erie Co., Pa.
- vii. Latitia. b. Albany Co., N. Y. d.      m. Alsam Cummings.
- viii. Oliver Jr. b. 1803 Albany N. Y. d. about 1844. He lived near his father in Summerhill Twp.
- * ix. Patty Ann. b. 30 November 1808 d. 6 January 1840. Four small children listed in 1840 census of Conneaut Twp., Crawford Co., Pa. Later the family moved to Indiana.

Oliver Lawrence was born on Long Island, N. Y. When he was about evelen years old his father died. He lived from that time, until he was about thirty years old, near Fishkill, New York on the North River, in what is called the Cove, in Duchsess County.

In his application for a pension for services rendered in the American Revolution he states: "At an early period of the war, and I think 1775 or 1776, I was enlisted as a minute man and served as such in the Militia for three months under Cornelius Van Wyck in the City of New York--Our Colonels name was Benjamin Bircham. --During this time there was no battle or fight or remarkable event. We were principally engaged drawing machines and cannon to the battery and what was called fatigue service.

The following spring, as near as I can remember, I enlisted a second time under Capt. Cornelius Van Wyck, for five months. We marched for White Plains and Kings Bridge--Our Colonel was as before, vix, Benjamin Bircham. I was not in the battle of White Plains as our regiment lay on the left wing. Our company and one other were not called into action--I saw the first fire--after which the smoke prevented our seeing anything distinctly--. Just a short time before this battle we had a skirmish with the enemy. --We were out on a scouting party and came across a picket guard--and in the skirmish our captain was killed dead. After his death, the command was given to Henry Mott who was a lieutenant in one of the other Companies.

After the military stores had been moved from Boston to Duchsess County. I enlisted under Captain Joshua Champlain for nine month. --Lieutenants Nicholas Koontz and T. Bentley. --We were stationed at Col. Vanderberg's and were employed in guarding the military stores in Duchsess County."

About 1787 the family moved to Renssallaerville, N. Y. about eighteen miles from Albany.

In October 1817, Oliver Lawrence, his wife, Patty and all their children, married and unmarried, with the exception of their oldest son William, moved to Crawford County, Pa. He settled along the Conneautville-Linesville road between Turkey Track and Summit Station. December 15, 1817 he bought forty-five acres of land, paying $400.00. His farm was on the south side of Fish Corners Road where it meets the Conneautville Linesville Road.

6 October 1832 he applied for a pension for services rendered during the American Revolution. He received his first payment 4 March 1834. Amount granted was $60.00 per annum.

We have no data on Patty Wait but evidently she was still living in 1840 as the census lists Oliver Lawrence as being between 80 and 90 years of age and a female in the same age bracket.

They had one daughter.

Obed Lawrence Sr. was born in Albany Co., N. Y.

According to family tradition he moved with his parents to Crawford Co. Pa., in 1817. Evidently he had been married in New York.

He farmed in Summerhill Township of that county until after 1850. In 1860 the family lived in Conneaut Township.

His first wife Clarissa (Clara), died three months after the birth of their fifth child.

He then married Catherine (Kate) Kaufman. She was about the same age as his oldest son, Alfred.

She was evidently a fair-minded, caring person. In her will, which was admitted for probate, 7 April 1873, she gave all her household goods, with the exception of one feather bed, to her daughter Eliza Stevens. The feather bed was given to her daughter Isador Miller. All of her other property was to be sold and divided equally among her five children and the five children of her husband, Obed Lawrence, by his first wife. She also specified that Lucretia Lawrence, widow of Alfred Lawrence, receive the share which he should have received if alive.

Catherine Kaufman was born 1817 in Pa. Died at Linesville, Pa. 1873. Age 54 years.

Derrimon B. Lawrence, son of Obed Sr. and his wife Clarissa Bennett Lawrence, was born in Crawford County, Pennsylvania. Here he grew to manhood and married a neighbor girl Elezan Fish. Her parents, Joseph and Deborah Dean Fish were members of the Society of Friends, Quakers. Her younger sister, Catherine, married his younger brother, Isaac.

Sometime about 1850, Derrimon and Elezan moved their family to Illinois. Possibly to Knox County, as her oldest sister and husband (Isaac and Celia Paden) lived in Knox County, Illinois. September 24, 1850. The Lawrences returned to Pennsylvania sometime prior to 1854.

1867 the family moved to Indiana, with the exception of the oldest daughter, Clarica (Mrs. Henry Stewart.)

In 1868, they moved to Springhill, Illinois, where they settled permanently. However, their daughter Mary Jane (Jennie) and her husband Isaac McLallin remained in Noble County, Indiana, for the rest of their lives.

When the Lawrences came to Springhill it was a prosperous little village having three general stores, two blacksmith shops, a hardware store, wagon shop, and a Masonic Hall. A postoffice established in 1853, and a school house.

D. B. Lawrence was a farmer. Both he and his wife became afflicted with consumption. She passed away 29 October 1877 from heart disease and consumption. He followed 21 July 1879. Their two youngest sons; Sam and Frank being of ages 13 and 9 years respectively.

Frank Lawrence also became ill with the disease that claimed his parents and died 11 December 1890 at the home of his brother, Wallace Lawrence at Springhill, Ill. He is buried beside his parents in Pleasant Ridge (Sandytown) Cemetery.

The Stewarts began their married life in Ohio. Later they came west, traveling by horse and wagon, through Indiana to Illinois where they visited through the winter. The next spring they drove on to Kansas, where they lived a short time. Then they moved again, still traveling with team and wagon, to Washington Territory (now State of Washington.) They lived here awhile and again drove on, this time to Arizona. Here we were unable to follow and lost track of the whole family. They had three children when they left Illinois.

Isaac McLallin enlisted for services in the civil war, April 1862, aged twenty years. Served three years 1862-1865, in Company K, 2nd Reg., Cavalry, Pa. He was described as fair complexion, blue eyes, dark hair, 5 ft. 10 in. tall.

Occupation farmer.

After their marriage, Isaac (Ike) and Mary Jane (Jennie) McLallin moved with her parents to Noble County, Indiana. Here they remained the rest of their lives. The 1870 U. S. Census report of York Twp. Noble Co., Indiana, gives the value of their real estate as $1,200.00 and personal property as $350.00. Ike McLallin didn't like farming and turned the work over to his sons as soon as they were able to work. It is said he had a broad knowledge of healing herbs.

After the death of Jennie McLallin, Ike married Mary Jane *Rae, widow of Demester Rae, daughter of Uriah Guliland. She was the mother of three children; John and Uriah Rae, whom she left in a home for soldiers children in Pennsylvania and Sarah Rae who accompanied her to Indiana.

Myra and Sarah were very close, considering themselves as real sisters. Mary Jane became affectionately known as "Grandma Mac." Sarah married George Frary.

After the death of Ike McLallin, his widow lived with the Frary family.

The Frarys were parents of: Mrs. Lyle (Hattie Root; Rae Charles Frary; John Frary, (1969); Mrs. Helen Bates; Mrs. Dorothy Colby; Mrs. Elizabeth Bush.

Wallace Lawrence Obituary

Following is the obituary of Wallace Lawrence who died Sunday, November 21, at his home in Spring Hill, after an illness of only a few days.

Wallace Morton Lawrence was born near Knoxville, in Knox County, Ill., July 12, 1852 and died at his home near Spring Hill Nov. 21st, 1915, at the age of 63 years, 4 months and 9 days.

He was one of a family of eight children, but only one survives him, namely, Samuel Lawrence of Spring Hill. When he was a child his parents moved from Knoxville to Pennsylvania where they resided until 1868 when they moved back to Illinois, locating near Spring Hill.

On Feb. 25, 1875, he was united in marriage with Augusta George, and of this union eight children were born. He is survived by his wife and six children, Herbert, Mrs. Bessie Meyer, Mrs. Pearl Redell, Lynn, Lewis and Wallace, Jr. Two daughters preceded him in death, Mrs. Bertha Sibley, who died on March the 6th, 1908, and Mrs. Myrtle Franks who died on May 10th, 1915. Mr. Lawrence was converted under the preaching of Billy Sunday some nine years ago, and has always found great inspiration and strength in singing the gospel songs he learned at that time.

Mr. Lawrence was a charter member of the Fraternal Reserve lodge.

Being an industrious and hardworking man and being able to turn his hand to many kinds of work, he was in great demand in the community. For fifteen years he worked for George Hollis as a blacksmith but of late years has followed the cement business. He will be greatly missed in the community and the bereaved family has the deep sympathy of their many friends in this hour of sorrow and loss.

OBITUARY

Augusta M. J. George was born Sept. 10, 1857, in Prophetstown, Ill., where she resided until 17 years of age when she moved to a farm near Spring Hill with her parents. She was married to Wallace N. Lawrence Feb. 25, 1875. Eight children were born to this union six of whom survive: Herbert of Erie, Mrs. Bessie Meyer, Mrs. Pearl Redell, Lynn, Lewis and Wallace, Jr. Two daughters preceded her in death, Mrs. Bertha Sibley died March 6, 1908, Mrs. Myrtle Franks was killed in an automobile accident May 10, 1915. Her husband died Nov. 21, 1915. She leaves also thirteen grand children and three brothers and two sisters, Charlie of Clinton, Iowa, Frank of Minnesota, Ira of Erie, Mrs. Mahala Brooks of Spring Hill, Mrs. Rose Conner of Coberget, Wash., also a large number of friends and neighbors who mourn her loss. She was in poor health a number of years ago and the loss of her daughter and husband the past year has been a great trial, but then it all her thoughts were how she could make it pleasant for the family. Very few of her neighbors but what can recall her helping when help was needed. She was 58 years, 11 months, 20 days of age at the time of her death. She was converted about 25 years ago in a revival at the Sharon church.

Death of S. U. Lawrence

At his home in Springhill on last Sunday evening, May 14, 1926, occurred the death of Samuel U. Lawrence. Mr. Lawrence's entire life had been spent in this vicinity and one of the largest gatherings that ever attended a funeral at Sharon church attested the genuine respect, esteem and love in which those who knew him held him. Always even-tempered, generous, companionable and helpful to every one and with a loyalty to his Master Christ, not pompous, yet never made secondary to other things he has left a heritage of memory to all that will long be an inspiration to love each other better and to help each other more.

Mr. Lawrence was born in Crawford Co., Penn., April 29, 1864. One of four sisters and four brothers who were born to Mr. and Mrs. Derron Lawrence. He was married March 10, 1891 to Miss Nettie A. Johnston. Five children were born to them as follows: Mrs. Dora E. Williams and Max M. Lawrence of Prophetstown; Mrs. Hazel G. Pickens, Hoopole; Mrs. Winifred A. Pearsall, Hilldale; and Miss Pauline G. These and six grandchildren survive him.

He accepted Christ as his Lord and Savior in early manhood and was true to him through life. Blessed are they who die in the Lord for they rest from their labors and their works do follow them.

The funeral services were held at Sharon church Monday afternoon conducted by Rev. J. Scott Hyde. The music was rendered by Mrs. Bernice James and Mrs. Susie Miller, with Miss Susie Pierce, accompanist. The remains were laid at rest in Sharon cemetery.

Out of town relatives in attendance at the funeral of S. U. Lawrence were C. N. Johnson and wife of Rockford, Bert Johnson and wife of Sterling, Lemmie and wife of Port Byron, A. Morris and family of Rockford. Del Joles and wife of Maquoketa, Ia., arrived Wednesday to late to attend funeral. L. B. McLallin of Ligonier, and Calvin Black of Bibion, Ind., came to visit their uncle S. U. Lawrence returned home Monday morning.

At high noon on New Year's Day Rev. Floyd Tucker, pastor of Erie Christian church, united in marriage at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. U. Lawrence, at Spring Hill, Mr. Robert Pearsall of Hilldale and Miss Winifred Lawrence. Only the immediate relatives were present at the ceremony. A fine wedding dinner was served. The happy couple will make their home on a farm near Hilldale.

Wallace N. Lawrence worked at different occupations, among them, working at the blacksmith shop, driving a team for his brother Sam, who operated a rendering works and at the time of his death was building a concrete bridge.

After the death of their parents, he and his wife made a home for his two young brothers, Sam and Frank. They took care of Frank until his death.

They lived in a small house in Springhill. The younger children slept in a trundle bed, which was rolled under their parents bed during the day.

The Wallace Lawrence family possessed an unusual musical talent.

It is said Wallace was a person who wouldn't stay long in one place so when Aunt Gustie decided she wanted to have a visit with her sister-in-law Nettie, she would slip away up the street to the Sam Lawrence home. In due time her husband would miss her and come looking for her. He would stay a short while and then say, "Well Ma let's go home."

While working on a concrete bridge he had contracted to build, he stepped on a nail, which became infected and in one week was dead from lockjaw. His wife lived less than a year after that. She died 30 August 1916 at Springhill from consumption and enlargement of the liver. Both are buried in Sharon Cemetery. All their children were born at Springhill.

Miles Weldon Lawrence was born in Crawford County, Pa. He came to Springhill with his parents 1867. After his marriage to Eva Jane Lanphere they evidently lived in Portland for a time. We have no record of his occupation.

He became ill with consumption, which claimed his life.

His wife, Eva Jane, was the granddaughter of Levi Fuller Sr. and his wife Betsy, nee Martin, who came to Portland Township, Whiteside County, Illinois 1836. Her paternal grandparents, Caleb Lanphere and his wife, Lucinda, nee Martin, were also early settlers arriving in Portland 1841, from Greene County, New York.

7 January 1895, Eva J. Lawrence purchased from George Talbott N $\frac{1}{2}$  pt 9 Block 4 in Springhill for the sum of \$50.00. 27 November 1897, she purchased from the same person pt 9 Block 4, Springhill for \$50.00.

Following the death of M. Weldon Lawrence she married a second time to Wm. H. Olinger, 27 February 1900. He became known as Uncle Billy.

Aunt Eva and Uncle Billy lived in Prophetstown. He was a barber and worked with Ross Kiner in a shop in Prophetstown for many years. The Prophetstown Echo, March 3, 1901 contained the following ad.

OLINGER & KINER.

In 1900 or 1901 Eva opened a popcorn stand, which she operated with the help of her daughter, Mrs. Ross Kiner. The stand was between Ross Kiner's barbershop and the building where the office of Ward, Ward, Castendyke and Pace attys. is now located. Behind the popcorn place was a board walk leading to a tiny house. Here the Kiners lived for some time and the Olingers lived in the apartment over the barber shop. Later when Aunt Eva wasn't able to climb the stairs the Olingers moved down into the house and the Kiners moved up into the apartment. We called them flats then.

One of the hazards the popcorn stand survived was re-told in "Fifty Years Ago, Prophetstown Long Ago." July 11, 1973 issue of The Prophetstown Echo.

"The explosion of a firecracker on the awning of Mrs. Olinger's popcorn stand, Sunday, set fire to it. The fire alarm was sounded, but the blaze was extinguished before the truck could be gotten out."

Any person who grew up during the Olinger-Lawrence popcorn era, can tell how Aunt Eva would sit patiently popping corn over the burner of a kerosene stove, while the aroma of freshly popped corn drifted down main street on the evening breeze.

Sam Lawrence came with his parents to Springhill, Ill. when he was about four years old. He was left an orphan at age fifteen years. From that time he worked out as a farm hand but made his home with his older brother, Wallace.

10 March 1891, he married Nettie Johnson at the home of her father, rural Prophetstown. She was the granddaughter of John Sperry Johnson, who came to Prophetstown in 1835.

For many years he operated a rendering works in Springhill. One of the by products of this business was "Emo", a soft soap which contained an added ingredient, very fine ground stone. Emo was very good to clean grease and other grime from the workman's hands.

He was a man of varied talents. He was an expert gardener, painted signs, repaired clocks and watches and presented "Magic Shows". His chief delight was to amaze his grandchildren by picking a ball off their nose or out of their ear.

He raised white mice and guinea pigs. He also raised gold fish to sell. In the yard was two large cement tanks where the fish lived in the summer. One was for the tiny fish and the other for older fish. In the winter the fish were kept in tanks in the basement. One day a young man came to see the fish but when he arrived he decided Sam's daughter, Winnie, was more interesting... In fact he married her. You guessed it, that young man was Robert Pearsall.

Nettie was always on call in Springhill when there was sickness or an emergency.. Her main interest was her family and her church. She remained keen and alert almost to the end of her life.

Her hobby was sewing and crocheting. The last few years she lived with her daughter, Dora, until she submitted to a gall stone surgery, at age 97. After that time she lived in a nursing home. She broke her hip 1 Jan. 1969.

When Ida was ten months old her mother died. A Prophets-town couple Mr. and Mrs. Brigham raised her as their own child. They gave her the name Brigham but never formally adopted her. She never knew she was a foster child until she was a teenage girl. An acquaintance maliciously informed her she was "adopted."

Ida cared for her foster mother until her death. She also made a home for her foster brother Lee Brigham.

She worked in Prophetstown stores and for many years was a switch board operator for the Prophetstown Telephone Company.

Ida resided in the Brigham home, 113 W. Second Street, Prophetstown, until her death.

Harry and Clara were married on Christmas eve, following the Christmas program, by the Rev. Brown.

Clara was a graduate of Prophetstown High School. She was a descendant of some of Prophetstown's earliest settlers.

Harry was a man of varied occupations. He operated a store at Rickle (eight mile) for five years and one at Yorktown for five years. He farmed at Prophetstown and operated the Lawrence popcorn stand. He would have a stand at the Whiteside County Fair where he sold popcorn and taffy and pop. The taffy was cooked, pulled, and packaged on the spot. He sold the popcorn business to Vora and her husband Earl. This business is still operated in Prophetstown by the Thicksten family.

He was a road patrolman for many years. His son Vernon worked with him at this undertaking.

d. 29 April 1956.

Julia Almira was called "Allie" by her relatives but her husbands pet name for her was "Bridget", and that is what he put on her grave marker. "Bridget", wife of R. R. Kiner.

Ross Kiner's father taught school at one time. His grandfather John Smith was a blacksmith at Atkinson, Ill. Ross's parents were divorced when he was very young and he never saw his father again.

He and Bridget loved the outdoors and each spring the the Kiners would move from their apartment over the barber-shop to their cabin down by the river in what is now the State Park. Ross Kiner was a barber in Prophetstown. He was an avid sportsman and his wife "Bridget" shared his interest.

She helped run the popcorn-peanut stand.

Ross hunted as a boy and youth when plover and other now rare game was plentiful in the Green River bottoms.

He wrote articles and poems. He contributed to Sports Afield, the Tribune, and the Echo stories of hunting experiences.

After the death of his wife, Julia "Bridget", Ross married Mrs. Jessie Williams Burchfield. She was born 16 January 1879 and died 1964. She is buried at Riverside Cemetery Prophetstown, Illinois.

Following is a poem written by Ross R. Kiner about 1903. It was copied from an old Echo.

I get so gol-durned restless
About this time of year.
I just can't tend to business,
And my wife says, "Now my dear,"

"You'd better fill your shell case,
Grab a little gun, an take
A few days off, this week and next
On Stanley Fuller's Lake."

Now you bet I don't need urging;
For the past month, in my dreams
I've seen the wild rice nodding
An' the water where it gleams.

An I know just how I'll tingle
How I'll crouch, an call, just so
When the first pair start circlin

O'er the rush grown lake below.

Robert owned and operated the Pearsall Plumbing and Heating in Hillsdale. Their son Francis now operates the business.

Robert and Winnie are members of the Bethel Baptist Church.

The couple spend their winters at Bradenton, Florida, where they have purchased a mobile home in a trailer park.

When Winnie was a little girl, her father captured a litter of baby skunks. It was a family passtime to put the cat in the pen with them to see the little animals arch their backs and raise their tails.

As they grew older, one day Sam cautioned his children, "You must not put the cat in the pen anymore. The skunks are getting old enough to throw their musk." As in all families, one little girl didn't heed the warning.

Suddenly one fine day the air was pierced by screams, followed by an unmistakeable odor. Yes, Winnie had put the cat in the skunks pen. She says she can feel the sting in her eyes.

Cal worked many years for Eclipse Lawn Mower Co., and later for Penberthy Mfg. Co., at Prophetstown, Ill. He retired in 1965. Cecelia also worked for Penberthy. They have developed most of their land into a housing project. This land was purchased by her father in 1926 from John Blackmore for the consideration of $4,500. (P'town Echo.) Cal and Cecelia have cared for several elderly persons in their home. They celebrated their golden wedding anniversary 24 February 1976.

Cal and his brothers were good singers and used to sing at programs, dances, etc.

While Cecelia was a very small child, she moved with her parents back to their native Sweden. When she was about ten years old they returned to the United States. Her father made plans for the return voyage on the Titanic. He told his family it was a new ship and would be the safest way to sail. Due to the fact he wasn't able to finish his business in Sweden in time, the family came on a later boat. The Titanic sank on it's maiden voyage. When they did sail it was aboard the Lusitania. This ship was later sunk by the Germans, one of the events leading up to the entry of the United States into World War I.
